

AMOCA

American Museum of Ceramic Art

Exhibiting the Robert and Collette
Wilson's collection of German Mettlach
Ware

Robert and Colette Wilson, ca 2012

Correction: The ewer shown above is not Mettlach but is on display within the Wilson Collection.

BARRY BARTLETT
CRAIG CLIFFORD
JOHN DE FAZIO
ANDREA GILL
KAREN KOEHLITZ
KATE DOWELL
GILL

The following table gives details of the vessels, their contents, and the names of the artists who designed and executed them.

NO.	DESIGNER	EXECUTOR	DATE	CONTENTS
1780	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1781	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1782	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1783	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1784	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1785	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1786	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1787	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1788	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine
1789	W. G. Smith	J. G. Smith	1840	Wine

Please Do Not Touch the Vases!

Thank you for visiting our Mettlach collection now located at the AMOCA Museum here in Pomona, CA. We sincerely wish you well and hope you have enjoyed our exhibit.

Colette

The exhibited images represent approximately 15 percent of the total Wilson collection.

American Museum of Ceramic Art (AMOCA) ,
Pomona, CA , 27 Oct 2012

Available light images by John Mann, Erste Gruppe